Entertainment ... Dinner ... Silent & Live Auctions

You and your spouse or special friend are cordially invited to join us December 13 for a lively holiday get-together at the Red Lion Hanford House.

The evening will begin with an opportunity to network and meet new people or renew past acquaintances with members of the local NMA and PMI organizations.

Special entertainment will be provided for your listening pleasure, as you browse through the many items available and place your bids on gift baskets, books, gift certificates, and more at the Silent Auction.*

This is a great opportunity to shop for your friends, co-workers, and family members. (And, of course, those very special ASQ Section 614 officers as well – okay, just kidding!)

The buffet line for dinner will open at 7 p.m. (check out the sumptuous menu at left).

Following dinner, there will be a “live” auction of some of the larger donated items.*

Mark your calendar now (and make your reservations soon) for what is sure to be a very enjoyable evening!

* NOTE: The auctions are a fun way to raise money for the participating organizations. Our ASQ Section will reap the benefits from all items donated by our members/friends and purchased at the auction. If you have connections with a local business and can obtain a donation for the auction or if you have some items of your own to donate, please contact Jo Haberstock at 509-376-9685 by November 28, so that all items can be included on the bid sheets.
